DEDICATED

... a principal, educator and friend.

It is unusual when a secondary school principal acts truly in behalf of the student body; and it is even less often that his efforts are so effective that the students appreciate them and admire their originator. Student freedom, senior privileges, and other forms of liberalization initiated by Mr. Ouilette were gladly accepted along with the responsibilities which went with them. Mr. Ouilette, with his philosophy that "the students should run their own school" certainly left Suffield High School better than he found it. In appreciation, we proudly dedicate the 1969 Sagitta to Mr. Arthur J. Ouilette, Jr.

ARTHUR J. OUILETTE, JR.

To the Class of 1969:

The Class of 1969 will soon enter a different world. Some will take a place immediately while others will start upon the paths of further education. Whichever way you choose, let me extend my best wishes for success to each and every one of you. I will always think of this Class of 1969 in a special way since it was the first group of freshmen I met here in the new Suffield High School. It will be the first group of graduates from a school where I am serving as principal.

Do Well, Class of 1969.

CLASS OFFICERS: John Henesey, Pres.; Debra Szoka, Sec.; Karl Wence, Treas.; Francis Christian, Vice-Pres.

IN APPRECIATION

Mr. Zak

Senior Class Advisors: Mr. Wallace, Miss Schramm, Mrs. Sullivan, Mr. Cecchini.

We came to Suffield High as a disorganized class of unknowing freshmen. Through the years, the following people have sacrificed their time to guide us with their advice and experience.

Miss Biggerstaff and Mrs. Horton, who assisted us in the difficult first steps towards becoming part of Suffield High;

Mr. Clark and Mrs. Taylor, who helped us in transforming our plans into reality;

Mr. Roth, who handled our very successful Junior Candy Sale;

Mr. Wallace and Miss Schramm, who aided us in our final, most difficult, years at S.H.S.;

Mrs. Sullivan, devoted to us and a vital part of our activities since our sophomore year;

Mr. Zak, our yearbook advisor, who helped in all the behind-the-scene aspects of its production;

And especially Mr. Cecchini, the only advisor who has come all four years with us, and who has unselfishly supported us in every way he could.

CLASS OF '69 ENTERS NEW SCHOOL

New School New Spirit

Fresh and full of spirit, the class of 1969 entered a brand new high school ready to conquer all that blocked the road ahead. Under the strong leadership of the President, Ken Berube, the class of 1969 started its uphill journey to gain knowledge and wisdom; a trip that would take four years.

Assisting Ken with the duties of leading the "69ers" were: Joyce Baker, Vice-President; Chris Burton, Secretary; and Janet Graham, Treasurer. Giving us a helping hand were: Mrs. Horton, Miss Biggerstaff, Mr. Clark, and Mr. Cecchini.

SPIRITED FROSH TAKE HONORS

Judged on class decorations and school spirit, the freshman class won the annual Suffield High School pep rally on December 16, 1965 in the gymnasium by unanimously defeating the other three classes.

Highlights of the winning decorations on the theme of "New School—New Spirit" were a huge wildcat and the faces of the varsity team members in separate beds with huge feet protruding from under the covers. On the covers was printed Suffield High.

SOPHS SEEK STATUS

The class of 1969 began their sophomore year presided over by President Ken Berube, Vice-President Buddy Christian, Secretary Allison Harvey, and Treasurer Janet Graham. To advise them in all the problems that arose were Miss Jackle, Mrs. Sullivan, Mr. Clark, and Mr. Cecchini.

In order to boost class spirit, tee shirts with Suffield and '69 on the front and back were sold to any Sophomore for $2.00. To raise money, the class sponsored several dances and bake sales. Besides the fact that everyone had good times, it helped to enlarge the treasury.

In addition to these fund raising projects, a "Car-Bash" was held. After painting several of the teachers' names on an old car, the sophomores charged a quarter for the use of a sledge hammer for three wacks at the name of their choice. Not only was a great deal of money taken in but also it provided an outlet for pent-up frustrations.

During the year many distinctions were awarded to several sophomores. Jim Hoynoski and Dave Graves were chosen to represent Suffield High in the All-Connecticut Band. Beth Potter received the Rotary Club Citizenship Award at graduation in recognition of service, self-sacrifice, industry, and a spirit of cooperation on behalf of the school and community.

JUNIOR YEAR A GREAT SUCCESS

To start the year off on the right foot, the Junior Class received the class rings designed for them by Jostons. This year the class obtained the option of having either gold or white gold. Also, each Junior had his choice of stone; light blue, spinal blue, or a deep royal blue. However, the basic appearance of the ring was similar to what it had been in the past with the wildcat on one side and the scholarship ensignia on the other.

Tom Leahey, President; Allison Harvey, Vice-President; Sandi Doyker, Secretary; and Karl Wence, Treasurer led the class through a very successful candy drive. Our advisor, Mr. Roth, supervised the sale and kept track of all the money and candy. When all the results of the drive were turned in, Ronnie Bulat and Pete Durnakowski were found to have sold the greatest amount of candy and were awarded cash prizes.

MAGAZINE DRIVE

The Senior year started off with an energetic magazine drive. The class officers; Jack Henesey, President; Buddy Christian, Vice-President; Debra Szoka, Secretary; and Karl Wence, Treasurer headed up the four teams. Due to the large amount of enthusiasm on behalf of the team members many small, stuffed wildcats were soon seen in the halls. "Bud's Duds" surged ahead in the competition and claimed first place with a total of $1847.00. "Jack's Jokers" placed second with $1774.16, "Wence's Winners" third with $1745.74, and "Deb's Dynamos" fourth with $1442.47. The total amount of $6811.35 is the second highest ever achieved at Suffield High. Prizes were also given out to the top five salesmen; Janice Biggerstaff, Lee Fasoli, Tom Leahey, Gwen Adams, and Barry Goodsell.

"Bud's Duds", the winners of the magazine drive, and the top five salesmen were treated to a pizza party where they were served all they could eat and drink. Buddy, captain of the winning team, was awarded the permanent guardianship of McGregor, the multi-colored mascot.

SENIORS ATTAIN HONORS

Awards for excellence in scholarship have been presented to many seniors at Suffield High.

Thomas Leahey and Allison Harvey received a blue blazer with the scholarship ensignia embroidered on the pocket, the highest award possible, for maintaining a first honor roll rating eleven marking periods out of twelve.

The DAR Good Citizenship Award given to the senior girl who is outstanding in all round citizenship, manners, and courtesy to others, was awarded to Wendy Rowell who was selected by both the class and faculty.

Inducted into the National Honor Society on October 23, 1968 were Gay Maiolo, Shari Potemski, Jacqueline Bielanko, Loretta Rush, Richard Williams, Robert Leach, and David Graves. Each member, including former members: Terese Monson, Allison Harvey, Deborah Roy, Jane Barry, Betsy Jenkinson, Thomas Leahey, Noel Underwood, Wayne Sherman, and Deborah Kennedy lit a candle symbolizing his membership. The parents of these students were invited to the assembly and were served a luncheon prepared by the home-making students after the assembly.

'SHOWER OF STARS'

On May 25, 1968 under a 'Shower of Stars' the Junior Class danced till twelve to the music of Eddie Walenta and his band. The school cafeteria was transformed into a heavenly sphere with blue crepe paper and sparkling stars. On each table a candle flickered giving off a romantic glow. As the 37 couples entered, they were met with a garden made from turf, flowers, and shrubs. The grand march began and as the couples marched around the room the band picked the queen and her court. Debra Szoka was crowned queen with a garland of red roses by the class President Tom Leahey. She was attended by Dayl McComb, Pamela Hastings, Betsy Jaworski, Suzanne Woods, Susan Sales, Martha Potter, Christine Sutula, and Sandra Doyker. Each member of the court was given a single red rose and a charm with which to remember this truly memorable night.

Debra Szoka and her escort William Chaney.

SENIOR BALL

The Senior Ball was held at Vincent's Hill House on February 8. Dinner, which featured London Broil, was served at eight. Afterwards, sixty-nine couples danced to the music of the Retrievers. At the close of the Grand March, Pam Hastings was chosen as this year's queen with Evelyn Coulter, Chris Sutula, Betsy Jenkinson, and Janet Graham as her court attendants.

The four years at Suffield High School came to an end on June 19, 1969 and each senior left to find his place in the world.

THE LAST WILL

We, the Class of 1999, being of sound mind and body, hereby bequeath the following:

To the Administration: We leave the thought that as the first class to complete all four years at the new Suffield High School, we will certainly not be the last.

To the Faculty: We leave a bottle of "99" proof and one pica ruler (care of Mr. Arsenault).

To the Underclassmen: We leave the school seal for use on future yearbook covers.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

This year Suffield High School was host to two foreign exchange students. The first, Carlos Echeverria, arrived in the United States on December 6. This was the third time that Carlos had visited the United States. In 1962 he stayed in Houston and San Antonio, Texas, and in 1964 he and his parents made a trip to Miami, Florida.

Our second exchange student, arriving on December 28, was Carmen Contreras from Valdivia, Chile. While Carmen was here she enjoyed trips to New York City, Washington, and Williamsburg. In addition, she toured the Harriet Beecher Stowe house and the Mark Twain House in Hartford.

While Lee Fasoli, host to Carlos, was chosen as alternate, Betsy Jenkinson, hostess to Carmen, was chosen to live for 10 weeks in Santiago, Chile. Here she stayed with Gina Sirandoni whose family was of Italian descent. Besides attending a private Catholic girls school, Betsy went on a tour of Southern Chile with 50 other Open Door exchange students that were staying in Santiago. This opportunity to visit South America not only has given Betsy a broader outlook at the language, customs, and people but has also helped to strengthen the ties of friendship with our Southern neighbors.

Shower of Stars

A decorative title 'Shower of Stars' in a cursive font. To the left of the word 'of' is a black and white illustration of a young man and woman in formal attire. The man is wearing a tuxedo and the woman is wearing a long dress. They are surrounded by a large, swirling cloud of stars and confetti. The stars vary in size and some have long trails, giving the impression of a shooting star or a meteor shower.
